MALTA

The Residence Programme builds on the success of Malta's reputation in attracting expatriates seeking an alternative residence base in a warm Mediterranean Island in the European Union.

TAXATION

Maltese residents are not subject to tax in Malta on foreign sourced income not remitted to Malta. Nor are they subject to tax on any foreign-sourced capital gains whether remitted to Malta or not. Residents of Malta under this programme are entitled to taxation at the flat rate of 15% on remitted income.

Under the Residence Programme Rules law, non domiciled residents of Malta enjoy special tax status, a flat rate of 15% on foreign source income.

LEGAL BASIS

The Residence Programme requires that an economically self-sufficient residence candidate maintains a permanent address in Malta in the form of residential property purchased or rented in Malta or Gozo.

Malta enjoys over 60 double tax treaties. Persons who take up residence in Malta can receive their pensions in Malta free of tax at source and subject to a mere 15%. Malta residents also benefit from Malta's double taxation agreements existing with most European countries, Canada, Australia and the USA, ensuring that tax is never paid twice upon the same income. Overseas capital funds invested locally are of course only taxed on any interest or dividends generated thereon, again at a 15% flat rate.
